The Loyal Orange Association of British America

General Declaration

"And thou shalt teach men ordinances and laws, and shalt show them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do; moreover, they shall provide out of all the people, able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness, and place such over them to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens." — Exodus, chap. xviii., vs. 20, 21.

HT all times nothing can be more natural and at this time nothing can be more reasonable than that those who have common rights to protect, and common interests to defend, should act together and know each other. It is by division that the benevolent objects of true patriots are frustrated, and their best and noblest efforts for the public good defeated. In these distant, but important parts of our great Empire, it must be obvious to every loyal and reflecting mind that a union of intelligence, an increase of means, and a knowledge of each other are essential.

The Loyal Orange Association is formed by persons desirous of supporting, to the utmost of their power, the principles and practices of the Christian religion, to maintain the laws and constitution of the country, afford assistance to distressed members of the Association, and otherwise promote such laudable and benevolent purposes as may tend to the due ordering of religion and Christian charity, and the supremacy of law, order and constitutional freedom.

Its members associate in honor of King William III., Prince of Orange, whose name they bear, and whose immortal memory they hold in reverence, tending as he did, under Divine Providence, to the overthrow of the most oppressive bigotry, and the restoration of pure religion and liberty.

They revere the memory of that Immortal Prince, not only as a patriot, a constitutional monarch, and a hero, but as a true Christian; and hope, in the adoption of his name, to emulate his virtues, by maintaining religion without persecution or trenching upon the rights of any.

The Orange Association lays no claim to exclusive loyalty, or exclusive Protestantism; but it admits no man within its pale whose principles are not loyal, and whose creed is not Protestant.

Disclaiming an intolerant spirit, the Association demands as an indispensable qualification, without which the greatest and wealthiest may seek admission in vain, that the candidate shall be deemed incapable of persecuting or injuring anyone on account of his religious opinions; the duty of every Orangeman being to aid and defend all loyal subjects of every religious persuasion in the enjoyment of their constitutional rights.

The rules of the Association are open not only to the members of the Association, but to the whole community; there is no reserve, except the signs and symbols whereby Orangemen know each other; and these mysteries are essential to the proper qualification of the Brotherhood, the recognition of the members, and the prevention of intrusion and imposture from strangers and enemies. The Association is general, not confined to any particular place, person or nation, but extends itself wherever a loyal Protestant Briton is to be found, to the remotest corners of the globe, for the establishment of Protestant faith and British liberty to the latest age of posterity. The whole Association is one neighborhood, within which every Orangeman is at home, in the farthest parts of the world; and such is the mechanism of the Association, that while its operations are thus extended, its every movement is alike felt and answered in every part.

In many quarters, where the true nature of the Orange Association is not properly known, its designs and objects have by some been misunderstood, and by others misrepresented. From the name it bears—being connected in everyone's mind with the history of parties in Ireland—some are apt to suppose that its sphere is necessarily confined to that country; not reflecting that an instrument which has been chiefly used there to suppress rebellion, repel invasion, and secure domestic tranquility, may be found equally efficacious to loyal men of all countries, in protecting their lives, liberties and properties. The Association is constituted upon the broadest principles of national freedom. It takes its stand upon the glorious principles of the Revolution of 1688; it lays its foundation in the field of British liberty; it despairs the badge of faction, and knows no emblem save "The Altar and the Throne."

As the Prince of Orange was invited to England by a coalition of parties, who united from a common sense of their sacred duty to preserve their religion and liberties, so the Orange Association, named after that Immortal Prince, invites a similar combination, and calls upon the sons of Britain to lay aside political feuds, and, like their illustrious ancestors, who signed and sealed the great Covenant of Freedom, to sacrifice every private consideration, and establish a centralization of power to conserve the great blessings and privileges which we enjoy under British connection, upon such a basis as will enable every limb and fibre to receive vitality and nourishment from the parent stem.

Gen. M. Endacott

Mr. Endacott hails from Orangeville, Ontario, the center of Orangism in Ontario, and takes an active part in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the community. He is at present Park Commissioner for the City of Vancouver and first committeeman from Ward 6 Conservative Association. He is also past president of the Ward 6 Conservative Club. He is a member of Kitsilano L.O.L. 2195, and has always assisted to the best of his ability in the work of the order.

Fifty Years of Orangeism in British Columbia

A Short History of the Development of the Order Since Its Inception in 1863

By M. W. BRO. J. W. WHITELEY, Provincial Organizer

SOCIETIES with somewhat similar jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge extends aims to those of the Loyal Orange over all the provinces of Canada and the Institution existed from the time of colony of Newfoundland. There are about the Revolution of 1688; but the Association, 2600 lodges in this territory, and a membership in its present form, dates its organization from Sept. 21st, 1795, when the first lodge was organized at the "Diamond" in the North of Ireland. The Order has since made great progress, and is now firmly established in all parts of the Empire. The governing body in Canada is known as the Grand Lodge of British North America. The

Is strictly what its name implies. Mr. Johnston being the mainspring of very intricate detective machinery for investigating mysterious disappearances, the antecedents and daily habits of suspected persons, commercial and private affairs. Mr. Johnston only employs those as detectives who have established reputations for integrity, shrewdness, and tenacity of purpose, discarding the old maxim of set a thief to catch a thief. The honest mind guided by an upright purpose is Mr. Johnston's motto.

It is said Mr. Johnston is master in the art of disguising, but this is very rarely necessary, as it must be apparent to everyone that, owing to the large amount of detective work which comes through Mr. Johnston's hands, it would be impossible to grapple with except by the aid of a large staff of assistants. These ladies and gentlemen are in all walks of life, and moving in all classes of society, therefore it is seldom necessary to resort to the art of disguise, Mr. Johnston being the mainspring in a very intricate piece of mechanism which is always in motion. Strictest secrecy. Information most successfully obtained. Long experience has taught the best, safest and least expensive methods of investigation. In connection with his offices, 103-104-319 Pender St. W., Mr. Johnston conducts a Rent Department and has an efficient Bailiff staff in attendance. When you have any difficulty with your tenant consult Mr. Johnston. Distress Warrants issued and writs served.

R. W. BRO. WM. M. BRETT,
Provincial Grand Secretary Since 1908.

BRITISH COLUMBIA has the honor of having the first lodge of the Orange Association west of the province of Ontario. L. O. L. No. 1150 was organized in the City of New Westminster on May 1st, 1863, and this year the lodge takes part in its fiftieth Twelfth of July celebration. In 1891 there were enough primary lodges in the province to form a grand lodge, and the Provincial Grand Orange Lodge of British Columbia was organized on November 16th of that year. The first Grand Master was R. W. Bro. Wm. Johnston of New Westminster, who has since passed to the Grand Lodge above. The first Grand Secretary was R. W. Bro. W. A. Taylor of Vancouver. Bro. Taylor is still in the harness, and is at the present time recording secretary of Vancouver L. O. L. No. 1560. The Order has made wonderful progress in the Province, particularly during the past six years, since the Grand Lodge put an organizer in the field. The number of lodges has been more than doubled, and the membership has been increased by over 125 per cent. There are now eighty-one lodges in British Columbia, and there will be ninety by the end of 1913. A high standard of membership has been set, and the rank and file of the Association in the Province is made up of as fine a class of men as can be found in connection with any organization.

The aim of the Provincial Grand Lodge is to establish the Order in every part of the Province, and for that purpose an increase is likely to be made in the organization staff within the next year. The income of the Grand Lodge has grown considerably during the past few years, and owing to the careful financing of the Grand Treasurer, there is a considerable cash balance on hand.

Perhaps in no part of the Province has there been such an increase in membership as there has been in the City of Vancouver and the surrounding districts. There are now twenty-five lodges in Vancouver County, and some of these lodges are nearing the three hundred mark in their membership. Some years ago the County Lodge purchased the property at the corner of Hastings St. and Gore Ave., and erected a hall that is a credit to the Association. The property today is estimated to be worth $250,000. During the present year the property at the corner of Eighth Ave. and Pine St. was purchased by the Orange Hall Company, and the old church which stood on the property was fixed up and made suitable for public and lodge meetings. Property has also been secured in Grandview, and a hall will be built there within the very near future. As circumstances warrant it, property will be secured in other parts of the city, and halls erected for the convenience of the lodges.

The celebration this year is under the auspices of the Vancouver County Lodge, and no pains nor expense are being spared to make the celebration the best ever held in the Province of British Columbia.

The Royal Black Knights are Orangemen, who after a certain probationary period have passed into the preceptory and have received the higher degrees. There are eleven degrees in the preceptory, and the ritualistic work is beautiful and impressive. There are thirteen preceptories in the Province, two of them being situated in the City of Vancouver.

The Ladies Orange Benevolent Association was instituted under warrant of the Grand Orange Lodge of British America in the City of Hamilton, Ont., on May 24th, 1892, the present M. W. Grand Mistress being a charter member of the organization. There are at the present time 135 lodges in the Dominion, and 65 lodges in Scotland, all using the same ritual and secret work. There are three Ladies Orange Lodges in Vancouver County. The object of the society is to give Protestant women an opportunity, through an auxiliary organization, to help along the work of the Orange Association. The society also does considerable work in the way of looking after neglected Protestant children.

Association.

The Loyal True Blue Association is an organization composed of men and women, who recognize the importance of rescuing and caring for orphaned and neglected Protestant children. For the carrying out of their aims in this respect, they have a well-equipped orphanage at Picton, Ont., where these unfortunate children are not only fed and clothed but also given a good public school education so as to fit them to take

They have established an orphanage in the Province, and are using their best endeavors to see that no Protestant child is allowed to come under the influence of the Church of Rome. "The Protestant Church and Protestant people are one and the same. The people are the Church. The Roman Catholic Church and Roman Catholic people are not the same. The Roman Catholic Church is an organization above and apart from the people. The people belong to it and obey it, but have no part whatever in determining its policy. Roman Catholic people may be our very good and kind friends, and would not interfere with the exercise of our religion. The Roman Catholic Church, where it has the power, invariably limits, or wholly takes away, the religious liberties of others."
